

Ramjas School, R.K.Puram, as a part of the Dreams and Teams programme with the partner school Droitwich Spa High, UK participated in the voluntary services in the third Common Wealth Youth Games 2008 held in Pune. Five students were selected from both the schools to go on this trip. Shashwat Dev and Kartikay Khetarpal of class 11th were accompanied by their teachers Mrs Nirmal Lumb (coordinator) & Mr.Manjot Singh.

Ramjas School, R.K.Puram was the only school selected from Delhi for this project, thanks to British Council, said the Principal Mrs.Rachna Pant

The project was a learning experience and it needed them to work in two groups interviewing different people from different countries. The project also required students to interact with each other a lot, promoting teamwork and leadership. On the 12th of October they saw the opening ceremony which was wonderful. The experience, exposure and confidence they got from this trip was amazing and incomparable.
