

WE WELCOME OUR NEW PRINCIPAL – Mrs Rachna Pant

Mrs. Rachna Pant took over as the Principal of Ramjas School, R.K.Puram, New Delhi on Monday, 7th April 2008. Prior to this Mrs. Pant as Director, Academics, had been instrumental in setting up an International School at Bangkok, Thailand. The school, the first and only school in Thailand with CBSE Affiliation offers IGCSE as well as IB Curriculum and has 13 schools across 7 countries of the world.

Mrs. Rachna Pant, winner of the National Teacher Award, 2003 and several other prestigious awards, a dynamic and multi-faceted personality, is well known in the academic world for the numerous innovative changes she introduced at the Summer Fields School, Kailash Colony, as the Principal from 1998 to 2006. A few of her innovations at the Summer Fields School include:

- Remarkable improvement in the school's board results.
- Successfully experimented with a new organizational structure for the school.
- Obtaining ISO Certification from DNV.
- Development of a shooting range.
- Sensitization of students towards the environment and the less fortunate.

In her capacity as the Principal cum Manager of the Summer Fields School from 2000-2006, Mrs. Rachna Pant brought about fiscal discipline at the school. She took it upon herself to improve the financial health of the school and helped the school to attain self-sufficiency by mobilizing income generation.

She is widely read and has traveled extensively to numerous countries across the world. She has not only attended a number of international workshops and seminars to enhance her skills and add on to her vast store of knowledge. But has also been a successful Resource Person conducting workshops and seminars to help her colleagues and counterparts sharpen their skills and take the advantage of her knowledge. She has to her credit the honour of having authored a collection of books on a wide range of subjects including:

- 25 self learning books catering to the less fortunate rural learners
- Language books, text books, value education books and general knowledge books.
- A set of 24 books titled 'Modern Trend in Communicative English' for the urban learners.
- 'Reflections' an anthology of poems.
- Two units on School Management for the School of Education, IGNOU

Mrs. Rachna Pant's versatility extends beyond academics into the spheres of sports and music. She has been the UP state champion in athletics and has to her credit records in events like 100m, 200m and broad jump. Being a keen lover of music she holds a diploma in sitar and Indian Classical Vocal.

After achieving so much in life, Mrs. Rachna Pant firmly believes, " Success to the top is always a step upwards, never a step over. There are no lifts or escalators to the ladder of successit are only a step at a time...higher...stronger...brighter..."

The teachers, students and the administrative staff of Ramjas School, R.K. Puram are indeed proud and privileged to have Mrs. Rachna Pant as the Principal.